DECLARATION OF PROJECT CREDITS

OFFICIAL VERIFICATION & OWNERSHIP RIGHTS

TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

I, Dr. Hiral, founder and principal practitioner of Dr. Hiral Classical Homeopathy, hereby issue this formal declaration to confirm and certify the development credits, system design, implementation, and portfolio rights for the web portal and clinical dashboard hosted at www.drhiral.in.

This document verifies that the entire development lifecycle of the portal—including architectural design, backend server engineering, clinical database configuration, frontend interface styling, and legality/compliance research—was successfully executed and delivered by the following team:

Developer	Primary Role	Key Responsibilities & Contributions
Meet Doshi	LEAD DEVELOPER / BACKEND	Responsible for backend system architecture, Express server configuration, database modeling, secure session management, API routing, and clinician utilities.
Aditya Kumar Roy	FRONTEND / BUGS	Responsible for web aesthetics, fluid UI interactions, mobile responsiveness, scheduling view flows, and resolving cross-browser bugs.
Nakshi Jhaveri	RND / LEGALLITY	Responsible for medical data compliance research, clinical workflow analysis, user terms and privacy policies, and compliance alignment.

STATEMENT OF DEVELOPER RIGHTS & SHOWCASE AUTHORIZATION

All creative, structural, and intellectual credits for the codebase engineering and creation of www.drhiral.in belong entirely to the development team named above. The developers possess the full, perpetual, and unrestricted right to showcase, present, demonstrate, and share this website, its architecture, layouts, database schemas, and features in their respective portfolios, resumes, and professional showcase platforms as a direct testament to their work.

Dr. Hiral confirms the veracity of these statements and grants the team full showcase rights, as verified by the physical signature below.
